

This year's Journal offers some real problems. This was the year of the unification of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South (the "Southern" church, hereafter MES), the Methodist Episcopal Church (the "Northern" church, hereafter ME), and the Methodist Protestant Church into The Methodist Church (you seldom see "The" capitalized, but the official name did capitalize it). The existing Memphis Conference was of the MES. The list of changes is confusing and in some instances incomplete. What follows is a by-district account of churches received and merged as listed in the charge line changes.

Jackson District

MERGER: New Castle (MES) and Hickory Valley (MES), both Hardeman County, with the merged name being Hickory Valley.

Lexington District

MERGER: Sardis (ME) and Sardis (MES), Henderson County

RECEIVED: Union Hill (ME, Henderson County) to Sardis Circuit

RECEIVED: Lebanon (ME, Hardin County), Shady Grove (ME, Hardin county) and Corinth (ME, Decatur County) to Saltillo Circuit

RECEIVED: "Take Pebble Hill from Pebble Hill Circuit, of the former Methodist Protestant Church, and add to the Adamsville Circuit, of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, thus forming a new circuit to be known as North Adamsville Circuit." Presumably the churches of the North Adamsville Circuit were received from the ME church, but they are not named!

RECEIVED: Liberty (Weakley County; this church is not geographically placed, and the Memphis Conference then had several Liberty churches, but this one was located to the southeast of Dresden) from the Methodist Protestant Church and put on the Huntingdon Circuit

RECEIVED: Cedar Grove (ME, Benton) and Pleasant Hill (ME, Benton) placed on north Camden Circuit

MERGER: Lexington MES and Lexington ME

MERGER: Parsons MES and Parsons ME

MERGED: Bruceton MES and Bruceton ME

RECEIVED: Liberty ME and add to Holladay Circuit. Two of the several Liberty Churches of the Memphis Conference were in Benton County. One (not this one) was north of Camden; this one was somewhere in South Benton County).

RECEIVED: Cedar Grove (ME, Henderson County) and Union Cross (ME, Henderson County) put on North Lexington Circuit

RECEIVED: Poplar Grove (ME, Henderson County) put on Lexington Circuit

Paducah District

NAME CHANGE: Guthrie (Paducah) to Marlie Wallace Memorial

DISCONTINUED: Hendron (noted as a schoolhouse appointment; no property)

Paris District

RECEIVED: McRea's Chapel (ME, Benton County) to Big Sandy Circuit)

RECEIVED: Wesley's Chapel (ME, Weakley County) put on Cottage Grove Circuit

RECEIVED: Mt. Vinson (ME, Benton County) put on North Big Sandy Circuit

RECEIVED: McLemoresville (ME, Carroll County) and Liberty All (ME, Carroll County) and placed as a charge to itself

NOTE ON INCOMPLETE INFORMATION

There is no mention of Trinity Church, Paducah, being received from the ME church, which it was.

There is no mention of the Birmingham Circuit (Paducah District) being received from the ME church, which it was. In 1940 the name was changed to the Benton Circuit. In the first Journal to list individual names of churches on circuits after 1939 (1946) the churches of the Benton Circuit were Briensburg, Church Grove, Liberty, Maple Springs, and Mt. Carmel. I (Harrell Phillips) am not certain on Liberty, but the other churches listed in 1946 were received from the ME church.

Was Calvary (Mayfield) received from the ME church? Its proximity (then) to First Church makes me think that it was.
